

Sept. 19, 1928
Dear Louise,

No doubt you are quite well established in your new environment by this time and are following a routine of school life, getting up by a bell, eating breakfast and trying to conceal the fact you are not quite awake or quite dressed, attending classes hither and yon and studying, observing quiet hour etc, etc. We expect you will gain in weight considerably Mrs.